In Memory of One of the Founders of the Parma Senior High School Alumni Association...Lee Bailey, Class of 1929

By Tony DeMarco

Lee Bailey passed away on Thursday the 27th of July at the age of 95. The Parma Senior High School Alumni Association lost one of the corner stones of the organization. His dedication to this organization cannot truly be expressed in words alone. His 65 years of service spanned good times and bad. As treasurer for the past 45 years, he guided this Association and, as Lee would always say, "we are in sound financial shape" because of his tireless efforts. We will miss his colorful stories, his vast knowledge of the events that shaped

Dedication of the Alumni Bell Tower and induction of Lee Bailey the first recipient of the Bailey Bell Award for his lifetime of dedication to the PSH Alumni Assoc.

Parma High School, from its beginnings to the present. We will miss his recollections of the City of Parma in its early days. The stories that he wrote for the Newsletter gave a personal touch to history. Most of all we will miss a good friend who loved being an Alumni of Parma High School and for whom the words of our alma mater "loyalty eternally" were more than just words, but a way of life.

1929 CLASS RING

By Lee Bailey – Treasurer and Historian 07/10/06

The upper right hand portion of our "Coat of Arms 1941" for the Parma Senior High School, bears the inscription that appeared on our first class ring of 1929. Edward Cudlin, Class of 1928 was the artist for the "High Spot" our school newspaper, at the time and he was chosen by the committee to draw up the final drawing for our first ring to be made and available for purchase by our 56 seniors. I do not recall whether or not the ring was available to the class of 1928. Someone else will have to help me at this point. I still have my class ring and at my death it will become the property of the Parma Senior

The President's Message

By Nancy Fedak '66

Dear Alums

Hard to believe that another school year has begun. The school has been painted, cleaned, and re-organized. As an Alumni Association, we accomplished quite a bit last year. Our annual meeting was held at the Schaaf Community Center and elections of board members and officers were held. Over 15 new teachers were welcomed to PSH and at Homecoming we had over 150 alums stopped at the white tent outside Byers Field to visit, pick up a mum, and receive the free ticket to the game. We again provided trophies for the Homecoming Float - class of 2006 won again – and the queen and her court. The King and his court were crowned at the dance the following night. We also did the same for the Winter Formal.

In November, 6 new members to the Hall of Fame were inducted at an assembly for the Seniors and Juniors followed by breakfast, a

A Message To Alumni From Superintendent Zatik

The "Queen of High Schools" is undergoing construction changes that will place her once again at the very center of the school district. If you have had an opportunity to pass by the building this summer, I am sure you have seen the numerous construction crews working diligently. Changes to the building include:

- The front vocational wing is being renovated, eliminating the atrium area and creating two complete floors of useable space.
- The second floor of the front vocational wing will house fourteen

The Golf Outing

Nancy Fedak '66

The 10th Annual Parma Senior High Alumni Golf Scholarship Outing was again held at Ridgewood Golf Course on Wednesday, June 28, 2006. Over 110 golfers participated and with their participation and our hole sponsors, we managed to raise funds to award 6 $1000 scholarships to our 2007 graduating seniors.

A big "thank you" to our Hole sponsors:

WHERE IS THE TIME CAPSULE? THE HUNT CONTINUES

By Tony DeMarco

In our last episode, the Time Capsule hunters were trying to find the location of the time capsule placed in the cornerstone of PSHS in 1952. People who were at the event have given two locations to us. The first locations given by a number of people who say they were there is in the old main entrance into the central lobby. It was on the left hand side as you face the main entrance. The second group says that they believe the capsule was by the Auditorium entrance either by the entrance on the left hand side of the auditorium or by the auditorium lobby. Nancy Fedak went to the Fairview library to check the Plain Dealer articles on the cornerstone and then went to check the Parma Sun, which took over the Parma Post. I went with Mark Daniels, the business manager for Parma Schools, to look throughout the building for clues. Stay tuned!

"Those oldies but goodies remind me"

My 12-year-old granddaughter, from Newport Richey Florida, came to stay for 2 weeks with Dar and I this summer. In an attempt to keep her busy and show her the sites of Cleveland, I took her to the "Rock N Roll Hall of Fame." It is very interesting to take a 12 year old and try to explain the music of the 50's, 60's, 70's and 80's. I was surprised to find that she recognized some of the music from current day TV commercials. I should not have been too surprised about the use of the songs from the 50's through the 80's for commercials because, you can still understand the words.

I told her about the term "Rock and Roll" made famous by Allen Freed. I explained what the Moon Dog Coronation Ball was. I tried to explain why a big star like Elvis Presley would have sung at Brooklyn High School. I even told her of the time I road my bike to Ridge Records to hear the Everly Brothers sing on the back of a flat bed truck in the parking lot. She seemed interested in grandpa's ramblings.

As we walked through the Hall, every song that came on at the various displays brought back memories of things that were so important to me growing up. It was truly amazing how many of those oldies reminded me of the days at Parma High, classmates, good friends, and good times. When we finished the tour, and I had bought her a Rock Hall t-shirt, I wondered if she would be reminded about her high school memories by the music of today? I can only hope that she will, because I know those "oldies" remind me of some of the best times of my life.

Letters to the Editor

I have been reading in my "The Tradition" just received that you will need some financial help on your sign project. Thought I'd send mine along because if I put it off, I may completely forget it. I do admire you all for your hard work and dedication to keep all of us informed about what's going on. And a :Hip, hip, hooray" for Lee Bailey!! His is a case of true loyalty that's hard to beat. Good luck in all your endeavors.

Helen Reynolds Langan '35
Thank you Helen

Hi,

I was just writing to tell you that I have had a great year at the Ohio State University. Although freshmen year was tough to get used to, I managed to keep my grades up finishing with a 3.7. Also, with these grades I was accepted into the nursing program at OSU. Which means next year I can begin learning the things I know I will love. Other than that, I still work at Parma Hospital as a patient care assistant on the 9th floor. Have a great summer! Sara Cole

Hi PSH Alumni Association

In cleaning out my files, I came across some old school newspapers I had. Thought you would enjoy them and put in your archives. Maybe someone will recognize his or her grandparents. Best Regards, Charles Liszhay '36 Thank you Charles

The class of 1937 held reunions until 2001. At that time Bill Douglas, who planned so many gatherings, asked me to take over and try luncheons as fewer members were attending. On May 18, 2001 we held our first meeting at Piper's III. We met again in September. Our attendance ranged from 13-39. Often, Cliff Burk, from Novi, MI would give a talk on subjects of our interest. Each luncheon I had a theme with table decorations to correspond to the holiday. We had drawings for a hand-made quilt and table decorations as well as fall produce! We celebrated our 65th year in 2002 with a table favor for each member along with a drawing for donated items. Our luncheons became more comfortable as we renewed our friendships. This year on July 14, we met at Carrie Cerino's for lunch with 12 in attendance. Next year, 2007, we will celebrate 70 years. We will meet at Pipers III on Friday July 20, 2007 at 11:30 AM. Call 440-526-3835 for reservations.

Ruth Whitmer Johnston
Thank you Ruth

tour of the building and dinner with former Hall of Fame members attending (see the article in this paper). February found two teachers in the Parma Cluster awarded teacher grants of $300 from the Alumni Assoc. for use of materials in the classrooms. In May, 6 graduating seniors who also have a parent that is an alum, were awarded $1000 scholarships from the Association. The class of 1965 also awarded a $1000 scholarship.

May 2006 saw the dedication of the Alumni Bell Tower and chimes. A plaque, honoring Parma Sr. High Alumni association members for their distinguished service was dedicated. The late Lee Bailey, our past Treasurer and historian, was named the first recipient of this honor for his years of dedicated service. It was nice that Lee could attend and receive this award. Lee was our oldest active alum at 95 – he graduated from Ridge Road High in 1929 – the current Board Office. The bell tower digitally chimes the Alma Mater at 2:47 PM as the students are leaving the school at the end of the day. The golf outing was again held at Ridgewood Golf Course. This year we had 110 golfers join in on a day of networking and bonding. We were able to raise enough to again be able to award 6 $1000 scholarships for this coming year's seniors.

This year's Annual meeting was also held at Schaaf Community Center with the election of board members and officers. Homecoming will be held September 29th, 2006, against Normandy. We will again have the white tent on Day Dr. at Byers Field. Free tickets for the game are available in this issue and also at the tent. Join us again for free refreshments, mums, and renewing friendships before the game.

The PSH Alumni Association in cooperation with the administration of PSH and the classes of 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006, will contribute funds to purchase a digital electronic sign for the front of the building. The sign will be two sided and will face at a 90 degree angle to W 54th Street. The sign will display upcoming school events, student and school honors, testing dates, and other important school dates. The PSH Alumni Association will be able to publicize class reunions, the annual meeting, golf fundraiser, homecoming events, and other important dates. We hope to have the sign up by late fall. We still have to fund the materials for the base of the sign. Parma High Vocational students will provide construction labor. The sign will be totally funded by private fundraising. No money will come from the Parma

Board of Education. We are working with the board of education's business manager to make sure we comply with architectural and engineering requirements of the school and the city of Parma. We met with the building commission of Parma and the plans for the sign were accepted on July 18th. Hopefully by October, the new sign will be up and running in front of PSH.

PLEASE make sure you stay in touch with name and address changes. Look for all the reunions that are coming up this year. GO REDMEN!!!!

high tech computer classrooms and a media center of adequate size for today's internet savvy students.

- The once vocational horticultural area, most recently science laboratories, will be converted into guidance and unit offices.
- The welding shop in the back vocational wing will be converted into a warehouse area to house district-wide supplies and materials. Welding courses will still be offered in a renovated lab area in the industrial arts wing.
- The first floor will be converted into office space to house the district's administrative offices. Beginning in 2007 the administration offices will move from the Ridge Road site to Parma Senior High. The administration offices (The Stuart L. Openlander Administration Center) housed in the former Ridge Road School will be sold or leased. Byers Field and the Transportation Department will remain on Day Drive.

In addition to the changes outlined above, much of Parma Senior High School will have been upgraded including the restrooms, the wiring and classroom facilities. Although change is occurring, Parma Senior High will remain a vital and important part of the district, the flagship school.

Once the construction is completed, I will invite you to return to your school, memories in hand, and view her as the new and improved Parma Senior High School. I look forward to meeting you personally at that time.

Sincerely, Sarah C, Zatik, Ed.D
Superintendent

to be in the new room by next January. We will keep you up to date with our progress. We will have displays and we are hoping for a computer hook-up in that room as well. We will try to have permanent displays in the main lobby showcase and in the Archival room. We also will try to have rotating displays in the auditorium lobby showcases and the Archival display case. One of the new projects we are looking at is a virtual tour of the building on our web site. The tour will include a view of the outside of the building and a view of the inside of the building. We will show the changes that have occurred since the building opened in 1953. The tour will take about 15-20 minutes and we hope it will be ready by next spring.
