The Presidents Message

Nancy Fedak '66

Dear Alumni,

Hard to believe that we are soon starting the 2007-2008 school year. And, what a full year for your Alumni Association!! First, on behalf of the entire Alumni Board and myself, I would like to thank all of you who have served or are going to serve as reunion chairpersons and reunion committee persons. All of you help to make our jobs easier with all the planning, tracking down and forwarding information on to us. Reunions are a lot of work, but with lots of people to help, it does make the load lighter. And, we are all sure that those who DO ATTEND have a great time renewing old acquaintances and making new ones. So, THANKS AGAIN from your board.

Lots has transpired since last fall---the Board Office is now in the concrete addition in front of the building. Therefore, we gave up our Alumni Garden with all the plants, trees and shrubs that we had planted in them. We have relocated the Courtyard Garden to the back of the building in the one with the gazebo.. The end of July, Gil Fritzsche, '65, and I put in three beds with new shrubs and plants. This will take at least three more years to complete. If you would like to donate for trees, plants, shrubs, mulch or the money to purchase them, we would appreciate it.

FROM THE EDITORS DESK

Tony DeMarco '62

This past year has been a very interesting one. We have finally gotten a new digital sign for Parma Senior High. The classes of 1997 through 2007 and the PSH Alumni Association donated the money for this sign. It took over 2 years of hard work to get the go ahead to purchase the sign through the school system. We then paid for the base and got the labor donated. The sign will be ready September 1, 2007.

The Archival Room is up and running. We still have some minor display problems, but we should be ready for the opening of school. My goal is to have on-going displays for students this year as well as permanent displays for all Alumni. It will take some time and volunteers to categorize the donations we have already received. We now have storage space, so that problem is solved.

We are trying to put more pictures into our publications, and we will continue to try to place current and archival photos wherever we can do so. The use of digital cameras has helped with our efforts to include more photos. The trick now is to make archival photographs

Message from our Superintendent, Dr. Sarah Zatik

Our home is now your home. This summer, the remainder of the central office departments moved over to Parma Senior High School, and now we are officially part of the Parma family. As we settle into our new surroundings, I have found many positives about the move.

Deputy Superintendent Christina Dinklocker and I share one of the beautiful courtyards that the PSH Alumni Association maintained since the addition was put onto the front of the building in the seventies. We have added some bird feeders, a few outdoor tables and some new landscaping. The courtyard looks great in the warm months, and if you have a chance to visit the building, make it a point to see the courtyard.

Another wonderful part of our move to Parma is that we can now see students every day. As many of you know, our old administration office on Ridge Road was a stand alone building, and we were not connected to any school building. Now we can walk through the halls of Parma Senior High School and see students, visit staff members and feel like we are a part of the building.

also for their accomplishments after graduation. This class had a baseball team that won the district championship. They had almost all of their classmates participate in the class play, an opera, "The Pirates of Penzance". Mathilda Szabo had the female lead, and Richard Vura the male role. Mr. Alderfer was the concertmaster.

When these students graduated, they faced the worst depression this country had ever known. In four short years they were in World War II. They did their part, and it is no wonder that this class was part of the "greatest generation."

This class represents the Tradition that we not only want to highlight to our current students, but also to other classes of Parma High. We are proud of their commitment to their school and to the friendships they have maintained. We salute the Class of 1937 on their 70th class reunion – a milestone of class reunions.

Note - The Class of 1937 will have a 71st reunion on the third Friday of the seventh month of 2008.

Besides the renovations that took place as part of our move to Parma, the building has had other improvements this summer. The auditorium stage floor has been refinished, restrooms have been renovated and a new marquee, donated by the classes of 1997–2007, and the PSH Alumni Association, has been installed in the front of the building. These changes help keep Parma High School the "Queen of High Schools"; all of our central office staff members are proud to be sharing space with the students and staff.

I want to offer all of you an invitation to tour our new offices. If you have the opportunity to visit the high school and would like to see the new administrative area, please call my office or the principal's office, and we will arrange for you to see how we have utilized space to make a better learning environment for children while saving taxpayer dollars.

My best wishes to all of you as we enter the district's 154th school year.

All donations will be used for scholarships, the newsletter, and school activities to which we donate. Donations are 100% tax deductible.

by Dianna Kall

On Monday July 9th, we held our annual meeting. Thirty-eight members attended, representing 23 classes from 1937-2005. This was the largest attendance we ever had, and it proved to be a benefit for all the attendees.

Reports were issued from alumni committees and chairpersons; reunion updates were also given.

Some classes have begun holding a yearly reunion to catch up on news, and even a few classes hold monthly luncheons!

In November we will conduct another Hall of Fame ceremony. Five alumni will be inducted. Details will be posted on our website in.

Watch our web site for reunion updates as the classes confirm details.

Sandy Payer, class of 1949, won the door prize at the meeting. It was the 50th Anniversary Book.

SCHOOL NEWS

The Parma Redmen baseball team had an excellent season with a 17-10 record, tying for 2nd place in the Pioneer Conference. We finished behind defending state champions, the Strongsville Mustangs. This was a record-breaking season for the Parma Redmen and the school. However, our records are lacking as we only have information dating back to 1990. We are asking for your help in establishing more detailed records to add to the newly created records board to be placed in the gymnasium area. We are also seeking nominations for the Parma Senior High School Athletic Hall of Fame.

Parma Senior High School baseball has a tradition of excellence and will continue to do so as we are attempting to renovate the field behind the high school to create a "field of dreams." We are asking the community, as well as Alumni, for donations to help us make this dream a reality.

Any assistance with records, or in the construction of our field, would be much appreciated.
