Can you tell me what is happening with the Parma City Schools. Are they planning to close one of the High schools, as rumor has it?

Tom, I can't tell you what the plan for the schools will be, but this we know. The State legislature is proposing a new system of funding the schools. It just appeared in the Plain Dealer this morning (3/30/19). It is a new way of calculating per pupil cost and funding from the state. It still leaves the School District to primarily fund their schools with voted levy's. 10,000 students are in the system now. That number is dropping. 2} The total number of students graduating from all 3 Parma High schools is cont pg 5

Tradition

President's Corner by Michael Jaszczak '80

I find it hard to believe that I have been teaching at Parma High for 29 years. I usually tell my students at the start of the year that I first entered the doors of PSH in 1976 and I have never left! A few months ago, I was interviewed for an article for the "Monday Morning Monitor" (a newsletter the school system publishes weekly) about my experiences with the Parma City Schools. It became obvious to me that if it wasn't for Bob Rewalt and James Mayer, I am not sure how my life would have unfolded. Mr. Mayer took a very shy, introverted young man and showed him he could get "on stage" and stop being shy. Mr. Rewalt let me explore art and creativity.

During my career at PSH, many things have changed. One thing that has not is the dedication of the faculty and staff. Ask any student and they can tell you the name of a current teacher that has changed their life. From time to time my wife shares something with me from social media that puts PSH down. That is not what I see every day. To be sure there are a few students that don't like to follow all the rules, but they are very much the exception. Our student population is very respectful.

Times do change though. As society changes, schools have to respond. In addition to fire and tornado drills, we have to practice having lockdowns. This year PSH staff and students are being trained to know what to do if there is a shooter in the building. ALICE training is practiced to save lives in a shooter situation. We learn how to quickly assess a situation and find the best way to stay out of danger. While it is sad that we have to practice for something as horrible as an active shooter, the training prepares us all for incidents outside of school as well.

From The Editor's Desk by Anthony DeMarco '62*THE 25TH ANNIVERSARY ISSUE OF THE TRADITION

"Loyalty Eternally" Those are the final two words to the Parma Sr. High Alma Mater. What does Loyalty really mean? The dictionary defines loyalty as "the quality or state of being loyal to ones country, family, friends, beliefs, causes etc."

Our alma mater was written in 1941 shortly before World War II began and during the Great Depression. The writer of the Alma Mater wanted the students to take with them the lessons of loyalty they had learned from Parma High. Parma was an extended family of friends who's parents were from many different countries with different religions and beliefs. Yet with all those differences, they were able to work together for the good of their school, their community and their country.

Today I still see many of those examples loyalty and caring for their classmates, teachers, staff and all those connected with PSHS. For many of us today we still feel "Honor and Fidelity" to Parma High. See if you remember all the words to the Alma Mater? How did you do with remembering the Alma Mater? Here it is. Cont pg 5

PSH ALUMNI ARCHIVAL DEPARTMENT COLLECTION Margret Bertolone Maritz

NEW FEATURE ARTICLES ON OUR ARCHIVAL COLLECTION

The Tradition will now have a special feature of Archival material from our collection in each issue. We will have historic photographs, articles with photographs and objects from our showcase collections. Over the last 5 years, under the direction of Margret Bertolone Maritz 6 women (Class of 1966) Anna Georgalis Thanos, Jewell Kovalchik Demo, Karen Blower Charek, Nancy Fedak, Ellen Dean Durbin (deceased) made up our Archival Directory Committee. They have cataloged literally thousands of all forms of memorabilia sent in by thousands of Alumni over the last 67 years. We have two large display cases one in the front hallway and the other in the back hall by the Archival Room.

1953 - The space is brand new. Notice the bentwood wooden chairs. Wish we had those chaise now.

1968 Decorating for the Junior Dance "The Royal Americans",

1959 - Early morning crowd just off the school buses waiting to be released to lockers and homerooms.

1967 - Signs to welcome the new principal and cheer on the football team in the upcoming game against Lorain Admiral King High School.

2019 - Lunchtime crowd. Gone are the mid-century modern clocks and the lighting and ceiling have been updated.. Notice the digitized signs at the far “Parma High School we place you far supreme and over all. Students to you do decree honor and fidelity. Our pride in you is great. Your name must never ever fall. Parma High our promise is Loyalty Eternally.” How did you do? The Alma Mater was written by Norman Shibley '39 in '1941.

Norman was a graduate and played in the orchestra at Parma Schaaf High School. He went to Ohio State University and played in the Concert Orchestra. He graduated from the OSU Law school. He was in the service during WWII. He became a lawyer and eventually became President of the Greater Cleveland Bar Association. He was a past President of the Parma Board of Education. He is in the PSH Alumni Assoc. Hall OF Fame His PSH Alumni Assoc. Alma Mater has been sung at every football game ever since he presented it to the school system.

Wanted Graduates for 2019 PSH Distinguished Hall of Fame Nominations

We have had thousands of graduates from the Queen of High Schools, PSH. Many have taken their education they received from Parma Senior High School and developed it into a successful vocation or profession. We have many Lawyers, Volunteers, Artists, Teachers, Doctors, Scientists, Designers, Social Workers, Police Officers, Musicians, Service Men & Women, Nutritionists, Tradesmen, Businessmen & Women, Accountants, Administrators, etc. Many of our graduates have met many challenges in their lives, professions and or communities and have become very successful. Yet, out of the thousands of graduates, we only have about 75 Distinguished Hall of Famers.

Part of the Distinguished Hall of Fame process is attending an Assembly with 11th and 12th graders presently enrolled at PSH. These students are genuinely motivated and encouraged by the Inductees. This is another way we can give back to our youth. We can inspire the youth of today to become the Distinguished Citizens and Hall of Famers of Tomorrow. The program begins with an Assembly followed by a Brunch, and a Tour of PSH today. You will be surprised how well behaved the students are and see the changes that have occurred at PSH. The day is topped off with a cocktail hour and delicious dinner at the Event Center of St. Michael's Woodside. All nominations are reviewed by a committee of individuals who come together with a variety of talents. The committee then recommends the nominees to the Alumni Association Board.

Why not nominate someone you know for this honor. The 2019 Nomination form can be downloaded from the PSH Alumni Association website. Nominations are due April 30, 2019. You can email the applications to Barbara (Tomc) Filipow'61 (filipowb@parmacityschool.org) or Chris Leo'03 (chris.leo@sbcglobal.net). You can also mail the application to Parma Senior High Alumni Association 5311 Longwood Ave. Parma, OH. 44134. Your participation and support is always appreciated. LAST CALL

Sports Athletic Director Ryan Madison.

This past winter sports season was exciting as our teams saw much success. The season was highlighted by our Redmen ice hockey team who won a program record 29 games including a sweep of rival Normandy. They finished as Baron Cup Tournament Runner-Ups and won the GCHSHL Blue-North Division Championship. PSH grad and Head Coach Joe Gaudio notched his 200th career coaching victory this year and was selected as Blue-North Coach of the Year. The team was led by Matt Higginbotham who scored an impressive 99 goals, Matt Piech and Robbie Gudin. Redmen wrestling continued their dominance over rivals Normandy and Valley Forge by beating both for the 13th straight season and finished 2nd place in the conference. Wrestlers Daniel Devera, Gavin Ziol and Jonah Bagby qualified for the district tournament. Ziol hit the 100 win mark and set the program pin record as well. Girls basketball advanced to the 2nd round of the playoffs by beating North Royalton and were led by Seniors Taylor Richa, Elise Balcer and Shannon Chamberlin who all set program records. Richa for assists in a season and steals in a game and season, Balcer for 3pt. shots made in a game and Chamberlin for 3 point shooting percentage in a season and career. Boys Basketball had a tremendously exciting season as well as they swept rivals Valley Forge and beat Normandy twice to advance to take on a tough St. Edwards team in the OHSA Sectional Finals. The boys were led by All-District honorable mention selections Makail Cottingham and Allan Eason.

The Redmen Swimming and Diving team also saw success in the water and in the classroom. The team received Bronze Level status for All-American Scholar honors and Hailey Kreuzer and Mylena Stark were recognized as Academic All-American for swimmers who excel in academics by the National Swim Coaches Association. In alumni sports new, PSH '17 grad Andrea Scali is dominating in the circle for the Kent State Golden Flash softball team. She has already received Mid-American Conference Pitcher of the week honors multiple times this season and was named National Player of the Week as well. She has earned numerous victories this season including wins over Penn State, Baylor, Youngstown State and Toledo. The red shirt Freshmen has a very bright future ahead of her! Sebastian Spear, PSH class of '16 also did well this past fall playing football at Kent State. We would love to hear more about how other Redmen Alumni athletes are doing in their college sports. Let us know!

Starting in the fall of 2019, the Redmen and their fellow Great Lakes Conference members Normandy, Valley Forge, Holy Name, Elyria Catholic, Bay and Rocky River will welcome Medina Buckeye and Fairview into the conference. Follow Parma Redmen Athletics at parmaredmenathletics.com or follow Parma Redmen Athletics on Facebook and Twitter.
